About This Package

The Mauritius is an island nation in the Indian Ocean, located east of Madagascar. Known for its stunning white-sand beaches, turquoise lagoons, and coral reefs, Mauritius also features lush mountains, waterfalls, and sugarcane fields inland. Its capital city, Port Louis, serves as the economic and administrative center. The country has a diverse multicultural population with influences from Indian, African, Chinese, and European heritage, reflected in its languages, cuisine, and festivals. Tourism, textiles, sugar production, and financial services are key sectors of its economy, and it enjoys a warm tropical climate year-round.
